Teaching and Planning Programs for Adult Learners: From the Basics to a Social Justice Perspective

Survey Responses

What did you hope to learn from the seminar? How did the seminar meet your expectations?

- I expected to learn new methods and perspectives about adult teaching and learning. I am very pleased to have come.
- How to work with adult learners/learn techniques to better serve adult learners. The handouts & information really helped me out.
- How to work with adults. Yes.
- More insights into the adult learner market. Yes.
- How andragogy and pedagogy differ.
- How to interact and help the adult learners be better prepared for their higher education.
- Teaching methods. Very well.
- Different strategies in effectively teaching the adult population. The seminar did meet my expectations.
- I hoped to learn a bit of theory & practice strategies in adult education. This program was packed with great info! (I was planning to leave at noon but I couldn’t pull myself away).
- How to engage students in the class.
- I wanted resources which were provided.
- To have a better understanding of adult learner and to improve my teaching style. It was
- I’m a new teacher and I was hoping to learn about how to present the course material in a way that will meet the needs of the adult learner. The seminar surpassed my expectations.

How could the seminar be improved?

- Just add another day.
- It is perfect.
- I think it would be beneficial to have the handouts.
- With more time and hands on activities.
- More time.
- I thought the seminar was great as is.
- The pages in the workbook & handouts should be numbered.

Ideas for future seminars:

- Can’t think of one now. 😊
- Another Adult Learners Seminar.
- Panel of CC [community college] teachers on how demographics & practices are changing.
- Provide PowerPoint for us visual learners. Need to take notes for later review.