Riverside Community College Foundation

Moreno Valley College

Carroll L. and Rose T. Quin Music Scholarship

This scholarship was established by Dr. Carolyn L. Quin in memory of her parents. It is awarded once a year in the spring to students whose “Home Campus” is Moreno Valley College and who audition successfully for the music faculty. It is available to music students in applied voice, applied guitar, and/or music theory at Moreno Valley College.

Award: Awarded in the spring semester each year
Amount: $300 per award for up to three awards
Deadline for Applications: Spring semester, date in late April or early May Bring application to: Teri Currie, IDS, Department of Humanities, Arts, and Social Sciences, before 1:00 p.m. on the deadline date for the spring semester. Applications must be dropped off in the Office of the Dean of Instruction, Humanities Building, Room 113.

Eligibility: Students whose “Home Campus is Moreno Valley and who are music majors or minors and enrolled in applied music and/or music theory are eligible. Any student who has completed, or is about to complete, at least two music courses at Moreno Valley College may apply. The next auditions will be in spring 2014.

Requirements for consideration:

Part 1—All applicants will provide current contact information, including current email, USPS mailing address, and telephone number. All applicants will provide a list of music courses taken at Moreno Valley College, the names of their music instructor(s), and the name of the piece they will perform for the audition, if applicable.

Part 2—Additionally, students must audition for the music faculty with one of the following:
2. A notated score of an original musical composition by the student, or
3. An interview with the faculty for music theory students.

Timeframe for decisions: The scholarship awards will be announced at the annual “Scholarship Tea” presented on campus in May by the RCCD Foundation and the ASMVC.
