STAFF, FACULTY, AND ADMINISTRATORS ONLY

Staff, faculty, and administrators are invited to join MVC at the Third Annual Diversity Summit to explore this year's theme of Socioeconomic Diversity.

The summit program includes a keynote speech from Victor Rios, Ph.D., professor of sociology at UC Santa Barbara, and breakout sessions presented by EOPS, CalWORKs, Guardian Scholars, and Umoja.

About the Keynote Speaker

Victor Rios, Ph.D. is the author of Punished: Policing the Lives of Black and Latino Boys (2011) and Human Targets: Schools, Police, and the Criminalization of Latino Youth (2017). Rios is a recipient of the Public Understanding of Sociology Award by the American Sociological Association for his exemplary contributions to advancing the public understanding of sociology, sociological research, and scholarship among the general public. He currently teaches sociology at UC Santa Barbara.
